

Summary

In Search of the Answers

John Mathis - Trends

- Behaviour changes and culture
- 30 key findings that illustrate the way forward
 - Demonstrated Management Commitment
 - Top Management Participates in Incident Investigations
 - Independent evaluations / audits
 - Safety Staffing
 - Safety Planning and pre-task meetings

John Mathis - Trends

- Safety Training and Education
- Site Safety Orientation, setting expectations
- Formal Worker Observation process
- Recognition of Hazards
- Recognition and Rewards involve families
- Leading safety program versus lagging program
 - Lagging looks for the result, Leading recognizes the Behaviours

Brent Landry

- Project Type
- Contractor Selection Process
- Contractor Safety Requirements
- Project Execution Safety Activities
- Owners Involvement and Activities make a significant difference in the results

John Hudson

- Everyone can use technology to increase involvement
- Companies need to take some risk to create change
- Technology can be integrated into your business to improve efficiency and your chance of success

Bill Skea

- Coaching and mentoring
- Changing the culture of our industry
- Can Do Attitude is creating a negative impact on our results